

19: APPLIED- Implementing a firewall

Security+ (Exam SY0-701)

Congratulations, you passed!

Duration: 14 minutes, 35 seconds

- What aspect of firewall rule manipulation within Windows Defender Firewall is most effective at stopping unwanted communications? Score: 1

- Disabling an allow rule
- Defining a deny rule
- Renaming a rule
- Excluding a rule from a profile

Congratulations, you have answered the question correctly.

- What is the name of the first folder (alphabetically) in the LABFILES share? Score: 1

contains-nothing

Congratulations, you have answered the question correctly.

- If a firewall rule is disabled, but the associated communication is still able to occur, what is the reason for this issue? Score: 1

- The only way to stop a communication is with a deny rule
- Firewall rules must be deleted not disabled
- Firewall rule changes don't take effect until after a reboot
- One or more other rules must be allowing the communication

Congratulations, you have answered the question correctly.

- What term refers to a firewall rule that is specifically defined? Score: 1

- Implicit
- Explicit
- Ingress
- Egress

Congratulations, you have answered the question correctly.

What firewall rule is applied when no other rule matches a communication?

Score: 1

- Implicit
- Explicit
- Ingress
- Egress

Congratulations, you have answered the question correctly.

What should drive or define the firewall rules implemented by an organization?

Score: 1

- Baseline configuration
- Risk assessment
- Strategic threat feed
- Security framework

Congratulations, you have answered the question correctly.

The primary type of benefit provided by a firewall is?

Score: 1

- Preventive
- Deterent
- Detective
- Corrective

Congratulations, you have answered the question correctly.